

Acquisition Opportunity: Project "Game"

Online Retailer of Second-Hand Electronics

2022 Revenue: $7.09M EBITDA: $987K

2023 Revenue: $10.43M EBITDA: $1.15M

Overview

Established in 2009, Project GAME evolved from a one-person garage startup into a thriving enterprise. Initially reselling used video game consoles on eBay, the company transitioned to expertly refurbishing units. Founded in Westchester, the Company moved to its current facility in 2015, specializing in refurbishing and storing various video game consoles and accessories, from vintage models like GameCube to the latest gaming consoles

Notably, Project GAME's in-house team repairs devices down to the board level, previously outsourced to China. While primarily focused on video game consoles, they're proficient in laptops, tablets, cellphones, and more.

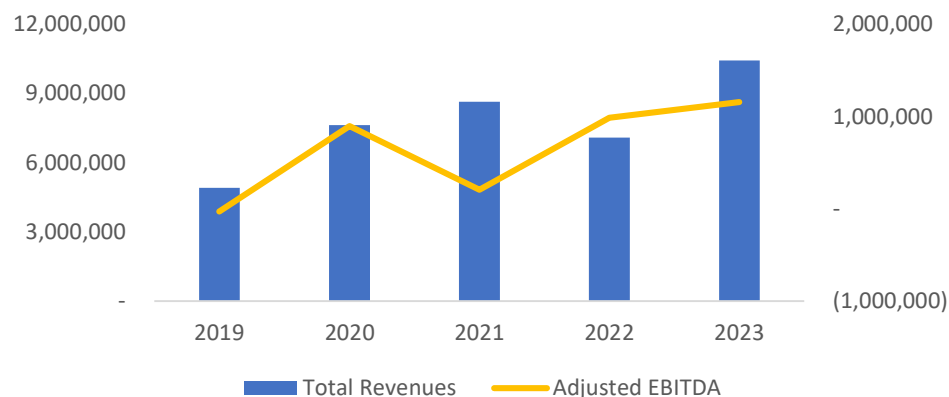

Project GAME is an approved vendor through Amazon Renewed and enjoys a preferred relationship with Best Buy for sourcing inventory. The company also lists products on Backmarket and maintains an active online presence.

From modest beginnings to a prominent player in the gaming industry, Project GAME is poised for ongoing success.
